

Privacy Policy

It is our policy never to send non-essential communications to members who have asked us not to do so.

The only personal information we collect from you is your name, birth date, email address, and your mailing address. We recognize that the loyalty of our customers depends upon our relationships with them and we strongly support the rights of customers to maintain privacy of personal data.

Don't worry, your personal information is safe. We don't give, share, sell, or lend your information.

REWARDS PROGRAM

Where Friends Meet

www.Larrys2.com

▶ How does it work?

Step 1:

Sign up for our Rewards Program & receive your card from your server

Step 2:

Present your card to your server at the beginning of each dining experience

Step 3:

When you receive your check you will notice the bottom will display your current reward balance and also display the current reward program(s) being offered.

Step 4:

When you have earned enough for a reward it will automatically print on the bottom of your receipt.

Step 5:

You must redeem that receipt up at the register because your reward can not be reprinted. Unfortunately, due to system limitations, any unredeemed rewards due to loss of receipt, or negligence will not be reissued.

*Rewards Card not Valid for Special Party Events, Gift Card Purchases or Off premise Catering. Inactivity of over 6 months will result in a deletion of reward points

Program Information

Our rewards program is designed to provide a platform for Larry's II to thank its loyal customers and friends. We will offer different rewards at different times and reserve the right to discontinue, change, or begin any program at any time without notification. The current reward program(s) will be explained on the bottom of your guest receipt. Multiple reward programs may be offered at different times or simultaneously. Comments regarding our rewards program are welcome by going online at www.Larrys2.com and clicking on the contact page.

How do I receive my Rewards?

When you have earned enough for a reward it will automatically print on the bottom of your receipt. You must redeem that receipt up at the register because your reward can not be reprinted. Unfortunately, due to system limitations, any unredeemed rewards due to loss of receipt, or negligence will be forfeited.

What Information do you collect?

We must collect certain personal information that is necessary to identify you as a member and to determine your entitlement to rewards. We also may collect certain information regarding your spending at our restaurants to make it easier to determine what promotions will be most appreciated by our loyal customers, and how to eliminate hassles and provide greater convenience for our members. Should you choose to enroll in our program you will be asked to submit limited personal information, which will be subject to our privacy policy as well as any specific program terms and conditions or other policies, disclosures or use practices that we may disclose to you at the time you register.
